Dear Mr. Ellsberg,

I just finished reading your book, Secrets: Memoir of Vietnam and the Pentagon Papers. I really enjoyed it, especially the first chapter about the Gulf of Tonkin, for obvious reasons.

I was informed a short while ago by Patrick Weadon, the Curator of the National Cryptologic Museum that you had read my piece on SIGINT and the Gulf of Tonkin, "Skunks, Bogies, Flying Fish, and the Silent Hounds." He told me that you found it interesting and further wanted to meet me. I, too, would like to meet. Perhaps the next time you are in Washington we can meet for lunch or coffee? Here is how to reach me:
